Reverend Peter Winstead's Legacy

The joy of St. Benedict's June 6, 2011 commencement exercise was tempered by our sadness at hearing of the death that morning of our beloved leader of song, Rev. Peter Winstead H '08. For 22 years "Rev" was a central part of the St. Benedict's experience, leading the school's Convocation three mornings a week with his inspirational songs (he wrote all his own lyrics and music). The Spirit was constantly giving him new songs for his ministry, so that those that were favorites in 1990 were likely to be unknown to the students of 2010. The theme, however, was always the same: God is always watching over you, caring for you and helping you to overcome life's challenges so that you can become the great person He had in mind when He created you.

No one who ever heard him at Convocation will ever forget the way he stood at the piano and lifted our spirits by making Shanley Gym come alive with shouts of praise and confidence in God. Nor will any of us soon forget the sound of 570 teenagers singing with gusto the words that would carry them through the day. Words such as "There's a lotta stuff goin' on in my life, but God is good," and "God has never lost a battle, don't give up!"

In recent years despite his failing health he would push himself to come to morning Convocation, giving us a living example of the faith and courage that he had taught us to sing about: "Stay up! Don't let nothin' get you down."

At a memorial Convocation on Sept 23, 2011 Rev. Winstead's sister and several members of his church heard the students sing and shout the "Rev's" music, assuring them and all of us that not just his spirit but his songs will live on in our hearts.
