

SCHOLARSHIPS & ENDOWMENTS

The 2011 bequest by Eric Ross H'09, for a $1 million scholarship fund in honor of the Thomas E. Durkin Jr. '43 Family, will now be providing aid for many St. Benedict's students each year. Fr. Edwin presented Mr. Ross with his honorary diploma at the 2009 St. Benedict's dinner.

Both regular annual gifts directed to scholarships and gifts to build up endowed funds for scholarships help us provide the great amount of aid for students at school today. These gifts may be given in the names of loved ones honored or remembered through them. In 2010-11, 424 students, three-quarters of our student body, received financial aid totaling $1,940,300. The average aid was $4,576 toward our tuition of $8,250.

In recent years the Lobo family has developed a significant scholarship endowment in the memory of John C. Lobo '52, one of four Lobo brothers who attended St. Benedict's, Paul '46, Walter '47, and Philip '59. The first recipient of the John C. Lobo '52 Scholarship, Giovanni Urquilla, graduated in June, 2011, and is now at Johns Hopkins.

Another approach appealed to the Barkhorn Family, which discovered a scholarship established long ago in honor of Dr. Henry Barkhorn, grandfather of Henry Barkhorn, III, who, through his family foundation, decided to renew this scholarship through annual gifts. The first recent recipient of the Barkhorn Scholarship, Fritz Bondoa, also graduated in 2011, and is now at the University of Virginia.
