ST. BENEDICT'S PREPARATORY SCHOOL

OMNES PARITER, “all together” in the original Latin of the Rule of Saint Benedict, perfectly describes the ethos of our school, where students live by the motto “Whatever hurts my brother, hurts me.” The Omnes Pariter Society offers alumni, family, and friends the chance to live out this philosophy through planned giving to St. Benedict’s Prep. Planned giving – in the form of bequests, charitable trusts, or other gift instruments – signifies a stable, long-term commitment to the school and its mission, the continuation of a well-established relationship. The name also points to the cumulative effect of giving. Each individual gift becomes more effective when combined with the generosity of other donors. Truly, we do need to work “all together” to help St. Benedict’s maintain and strengthen its dedication to the young men we serve.

Everyone who indicates the intention to make a planned gift to St. Benedict’s Prep is welcomed in the Omnes Pariter Society. We gratefully acknowledge in memoriam those members who have made such gifts and have gone to their eternal rest.
